

8th Summary

Our testimony, against Slavery, with one exception, appears to be maintained; those of the African race in friends' families are suitably provided for, and some care is taken to instruct them in useful learning.

9th Summary

Efforts are used to deal with offenders, nearly as the Quakers direct.

12th Summary

As far as practicable friends are careful to place their children for tuition under the care of suitable teachers, in membership with us.

Meeting adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon. Near the hour Friends assembled and adjourned to meet the same time. Near Friends may follow.

2nd of the month and 4th of the week near the time appointed Friends met. The following extract, from the Minutes of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, was brought, for the consideration of this meeting, by their friends which was read and united with.

The following proposition was contained in the Report from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, viz. That the Quarterly meeting now held in the 9th month, be, in future, held on the 6th day preceding the Yearly Meeting; that a meeting for worship, be held at 10 o'clock, on the 6th day and the quarterly meeting of Ministers of Elders at half past 8 o'clock A.M. of the same day, which being considered, the proposed change in time of holding these meetings from the ninth to the 6th month was approved, and the Clerks are directed to furnish Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, with a copy of this minute.

Extracted from the Minutes of Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Friends for 1846
