

The friends appointed, at a former sitting, reported that on inspecting the Treasurer's account, they find in her hands, a balance of $17.44 cts., all the quotas being paid in, except from Dunning's Creek.

Meeting adjourned to 1/2 past 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Near the hour Friends met.

The joint Committee, of men and women friends appointed last year, to extend such care to our subordinate meetings as they might find necessary, produced the subjoined report, which was read to satisfaction, and the Committee continued with the addition of Hannah Talbot, to act in the service as truth may open the way.

To the Yearly Meeting, now sitting

The Committee, set apart last year, to visit the Quarterly and monthly meetings and the meetings composing them, report that in pursuance of the object of their appointment six of their number, four men and two women Friends attended in the 11th month last, Nottingham Quarterly Meeting and the monthly meetings composing it, to satisfaction. They also sat with their Committee upon disand Dux Creek monthly meetings in second month last, having added the names of the members of the Yearly Meeting Committee, he acted with them, and all the Cases, within the limits of that monthly meeting, which seemed necessary to be attended to, were disposed of. In the 11th and 12th months six of their number, four men and two women visited Hopewell monthly meeting, belonging to Baltimore Quarter to satisfaction, and also Dunning's Creek, and Centre monthly meetings, belonging to Dunning's Creek Quarter - and Dunning's Creek Quarterly Meeting, held at Bellefont, and small families to satisfaction. One remote meeting belonging to this Quarterly Meeting was not visited. They also attended the small indulged meeting at Marshall to satisfaction. In 9th month last, 7 friends, 4 men and 3 women were engaged in Virginia. The half years meeting was attended with comfort and satisfaction, and all the monthly meetings, but one (not kept up) with the members of which they had an opportunity, advising them to report their true condition to the half years meeting. The several meetings were fully attended, and every facility and assistance given to the Committee. We also attended
