Several friends from other Yearly Meetings in attendance, produced Certificates and Minutes from their respective meetings, expressive of unity and sympathy with them in their prospect of religious service, which have been acceptably read.

Epistles from London, Philadelphia, New England, New York, Ohio and Indiana Yearly Meetings were received and read. These evidences of sisterly love and fellowship have caused us renewedly to feel, that our epistolatory correspondence, if continued under right direction, will have a tendency to bind in one the living members of the church militant, however
