were appointed to prepare essays of Epistles as they may open and produce at a future sitting.

Representatives were desired to stop at the close of this sitting to consider of and propose to the meeting two friends to serve as clerks for the present year.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

As the hour of Friends met

Margaret Cheston on behalf of the Representatives informed the meeting that they had conferred together, but were not in readiness to report.

Certificates and Minutes for Brethren and Sisters from other Yearly Meetings were received and read. The company of these dear friends has been acceptable and edifying, and we hope their labors of love may be as "bread cast upon the water," found after many days.

The minutes of last year were read, and the meeting informed that they had been transcribed by the committee. Also that the Epistles had been sent to the Quarterly Meetings as directed.

Margaret Cheston and Eliza S. King were named to correct and transcribe the minutes of the present year.

Barah Hopkins and Ann J. Matting were appointed to inspect the Treasurer's account, and report at a future sitting.

Ruth Rugh and Vacey E. King were appointed to unite with our friends in preparing an essay of endorsement to be
