Under a thankful sense of the help of Him who is the saving strength of his dependant-children, we have been furnished with ability at this ~~season~~ season to transact the weighty affairs of the Church in harmony and sweet-fellowship of spirit. A precious covering of solemnity has been granted from sitting to sitting, by which we have been enabled unworthily as we are, to take fresh courage, and, in unreserved acknowledgment of this unmerited mercy, we affectionately bid each other farewell, humbly praying of the Lord that He may in His goodness preserve every one of us in "the truth as it is in Jesus," our Holy Redeemer.

We conclude to meet again at the usual time next year if it is permitted.

Samuel Lathrop

Clerk
