

and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind," and not to let unwatchfulness, or undue attention to the careful cares of life, induce us to forsake the assembling of ourselves together, believing that the reward would be sure, and in proportion to the sacrifice.

From Supreme Love to our Heavenly Father, would flow that love towards each other, which would bind all together, as with a threefold cord, and then as faithfulness to all His requisitions was at once in, and we were concerned to lay our hearts as whole burnt offerings upon His altar, we might trust that Zion would yet arise and put on her beautiful garments, and her waste places would be rebuilt.

1st Summary

First day Morning meeting, appear to have been generally attended by the greater part of our members; deficiencies are noticed in the attendance of those held in the middle of the week and for discipline, unbecoming behaviour mostly avoided, and the house nearly observed.

2^d Summary

We believe many friends maintain love towards each other, becoming our Christian profession, false dealing and detraction, mostly discouraged, no apparent differences.

3^d Summary

Some friends are concerned by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel, to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, also to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

Our testimony against the unnecessary use of spirituous liquors appears to be maintained, and friends are mostly careful to observe moderation and temperance upon all occasions.
