12th Summary

Friends appear careful as far as practicable to have their children taught in their families, or in schools under the charge of those in membership with us. Some attend neighboring schools.

Then Friends laid before this meeting the minutes, of the Meeting for Sufferings for the past year, which were read.

The also received, from the men's meeting, the report, of the Committee on Indian concerns, which was satisfactory & encouraging, & convincing that the labors, of Friends, have been blessed to the benefit of this much injured people.

26th of the Month and 4th of the week.

Friends met pursuant to adjournment & reads of Epistles to the Yearly Meetings of

New York, Indiana, North Carolina and Philadelphia were read and approved.

Adjourned to the 14th hour this afternoon.

14th day afternoon

Near the house meeting gathered. The Committee appointed last year produced the following report, which was accepted and the Committee released, but in consideration of the smallness of many of our meetings and the scattered situation of their members, the following named friends were appointed to continue to extend counsel and assistance towards them as ability may be received from the only source of strength and wisdom.
