

has at times been pleased to make His presence known among us, in the breaking of bread. We have been favored to transact the weighty concerns of Society in harmony but earnestly desiring if spared to assemble together another year, we may be found more diligent in business as well as fervent in spirit serving the Lord.

We crave with humble earnestness that the God of love and peace may ~~be~~ condescend to be with us whenever He hath appointed the boundaries of our habitations, and under a solemn feeling of His presence, we bid each other in tender love an affectionate farewell purposing to meet again at the usual times and places ^{next year} if so permitted.
