

The Clerk is desired to hand over the epistles to be printed for the subordinate meetings as directed last year.

Elizabeth P. Hopkins, and Sarah Janney, are appointed to examine the Treasurer's accounts and report to a future sitting.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock to Morrow Morning.

24th of the month and 3rd of the week
Pursuant to adjournment friends assembled.

The London General Epistle was read to the comfort and edification of Friends.

All the Queries with their answers were read; and in thus reviewing the State of Society, the many deficiencies existing amongst us were brought into view, and desires were expressed that there ^{might} be more faithfulness in the performance of our various duties.

That we might earnestly ^{seek} for Divine Help to act in accordance with our High Profession as a people, being led, guided and governed in all things by the Holy Spirit.

1st Summary

All our meetings of worship and discipline have been held (except one for worship) those on First day afternoon and in the middle of the week are mostly small. Unbecoming behavior appears to be avoided. Though one report mentions some instances of sleeping and drowsiness. The hour of meeting nearly observed.

2nd Summary

Most friends appear to maintain love towards each other, becoming our Christian profession, Tale-bearing and detraction mostly discouraged. No apparent differences amongst us.

3rd Summary

Some friends endeavor by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care, in plainness of speech, deportment apparel, To guard them against pernicious reading and the corrupt conversation of the world, and to encourage their frequent reading the Holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

Our testimony against distilled spirituous liquors appears to be maintained agreeably to our discipline. Friends avoid frequenting