

The Committee appointed to examine the Treasurers account report that they find it correct, and a balance in her hands of $309.⁵⁰

Essays of Epistles addressed to Ohio, London Indiana and North Carolina Yearly Meetings were read, approved, and directed to be signed and forwarded by the clerk *

The Representatives are informed that printed copies of the Epistles received, will be sent to them to be read in the subordinate meetings.

The Representatives being called are present as at the beginning, with the exception of five from Nottingham who failed to answer to their names. The meeting is informed that since the close of the fourth sitting they have absented themselves from this meeting.

Under a thankful sense of the Help of him who is the saving strength of His dependent people, we have been favored at this time, to transact the weighty concerns that have come before us in a measure we trust of that Love which is without dissimulation, And though often made feelingly sensible of our weakness, and insufficiency of ourselves to perform any good thing, yet we have reverently acknowledged that the language of thanksgiving and praise has at times been permitted to arise among us. "Bless the Lord O house of Israel Bless the Lord O house of Aaron, Bless the Lord O house of Levi, Ye that fear the Lord Bless the Lord." "Know ye that the Lord He is God, it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Praise ye the Lord.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the usual time ^{next year} if so permitted.

* The Clerk is directed to add the following postscript to each of the Epistles addressed by this, to other Yearly Meetings. P.S. For an account of the action of our Yearly Meeting with regard to the two Epistles sent to us each claiming to be from the Ohio Yearly Meeting we refer you to the Report accompanying the Epistle of Men Friends, to your meeting.
