

will make their way hard, and perhaps turn them aside from the fountain of living waters, to hew out for themselves "cisterns, broken cisterns, that will hold no water"

1st Summary.

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held, excepting one preparative meeting in 5th Mo. - mentioned in the report from Dunning's Creek - and those on first day mornings pretty well attended - those on week days small - Unbecoming behavior mostly avoided - and the hour generally observed -

2nd Summary

We believe Friends are mostly careful to maintain love towards each other ~~and~~ maintaining becoming our Christian profession, Tale-bearing and detraction appear to be generally discouraged -

No differences apparent amongst us -

3rd Summary.

Some friends endeavor by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel.

Some endeavors are used to guard them from reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world - They are encouraged to read the Holy Scriptures

4th Summary

Our testimony appears to be maintained against distilled spirituous liquors - frequenting taverns and places of diversion mostly avoided - and a good degree of moderation and temperance observed

5th Summary

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved - There are no children amongst us requiring the aid of the meeting in their education.

6th Summary

We believe most Friends maintain a faithful testimony against a hireling ministry - Clear as regards the latter part of this Query -

7th Summary

Friends appear generally careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage. They are just in their dealings and punctual in complying