

Our short comings and deficiencies were in some measure brought into view thus showing the need of greater faithfulness in the administration of the discipline and the maintenance of our Christian testimonies. We sensibly feel our unfitness to supply the places of those anointed servants of the Lord, who were once valiant in the cause of truth, but are now removed from works to rewards - and fervent desires were expressed that He who calls to work in His vineyard would be graciously pleased to show us our appointed duty, and to impart strength and ability to perform the service required. Our dear young Sisters were affectionately intreated to close in with the offers of redeeming love, and now in the day of their visitation give in their names to serve the Lord - that when those who now bear the burden and heat of the day, shall have entered into rest, there may be a succession from amongst their children prepared to sustain the testimonies of their forefathers, and clothed with power to proclaim the fulness, freedom and spirituality of the Gospel dispensation.

1st Summary

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held and attended by most of our members on First day morning. Those in the afternoon and middle of the week are much neglected by many. Unbecoming behavior is avoided and the hour of meeting nearly observed.

2nd Summary

We believe most friends maintain love towards one another becoming our Christian profession. Tale bearing and detraction generally discouraged - no apparent differences amongst us.

3rd Summary

Some friends endeavor by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel - to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world - and they are encouraged to read the Holy Scriptures, but a more frequent perusal
