

are just in their datings and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th Summary

We believe most of our members are careful to bear a testimony against Slavery. Those of the African race under their care are mostly suitably provided for, they are instructed in useful learning, and some attention is given to their school education. The one report mentions a deficiency in this respect.

9th Summary

Care has not been taken in all cases to deal with offenders seasonably, but impartiality appears to have been maintained, and endeavors used to evince a spirit of meekness and love towards those who will not be reclaimed before they are disowned.
