The attendance was very small, and there were several cases on minute, which claimed our care & attention, and such advice and assistance were rendered by the committee as they were favored with ability to impart. Visits were made to several families, and we attended some meetings for worship, and others were specially appointed, which resulted we humbly trust to good satisfaction. It is cause of mourning however, to observe that the state of our Society within the limits of the upper Monthly Meetings of Va half year meeting presents a discouraging aspect.
