

2nd day afternoon

Near the time adjourned to friends assembled.

Grace I Worthington on the part of the Representatives informed the meeting that they had conferred together and were united on proposing the name of Julia Valentine for Clerk and that of Margaret Chaston for assistant clerk also that of Mary Edge to assist the clerks when needed - with which the meeting united and they are accordingly appointed to the service.

Hannah A. Dym and Mary Wright are appointed to unite with a similar committee of our friends in preparing an essay of a suitable monument to be placed on the minutes of friends now in attendance with us.

An epistle from our sisters of North Carolina was received and read to our satisfaction. It is referred to the committee on epistles to essay an answer thereto as may seem open for it.

Ann I. Schopfield and Eliza &

Cornshaw were appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurer's account and report to a future sitting.

The minutes of the meeting last year were read.

The meeting was informed that the minutes had been corrected and hand-written as directed. Mary W. Thomas and Jane White are appointed to correct those of the present year.

The meeting adjourns to week tomorrow morning.

23rd of the month and 3rd of the week
Near the hour adjourned to friends assembled.

The London General Epistle was read and we trust that the excellent counsel contained therein may not be lost upon us.

The meeting entered upon the state of society and proceeded as far as the Lsh. query when our beloved friend Samuel Lloyd paid us a visit in the love of the Gospel.

The meeting resumed the consideration
