

of the queries and proceeded through them with the answers from the Quarterly Meetings. In entering upon this weighty service we humbly believe that we have unitedly endeavored to draw near unto Him who is strength in weakness and with a feeling sense of our own insufficiency of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves, we reverently trust that we have been taught to experience that "our sufficiency is of God." Mothers have been tenderly entreated to seek first the kingdom of heaven for themselves, that so they may be enabled by example and precept to bear up the burdens committed to their charge, in the fear of the Lord, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

An earnest concern has been expressed for our dear young friends that they may not turn aside from the convictions of the spirit of truth - but yield themselves wholly to its converting power. Thus being thro' mercy created anew in Christ

Jesus they may be enabled to glorify Him in their spirits and in their bodies which are His so shall they become as polished shafts in the quiver of the Lord.

The meeting adjourns to half past 3 this afternoon

1st Summary

All our meetings for worship and discipline appear to have been held and generally attended by most of our members on First day mornings, and in the middle of the week, but not so well by others as is desired. The afternoon meetings held in the city continue small - No complaint of unbecoming behavior - The hour of meeting nearly observed by most friends.

2nd Summary

We believe most friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Tale bearing and detraction generally discouraged and when differences arise endeavors are used to end them.
