

3rd Summary

Though many deviations are apparent yet we believe endeavors are used by some friends to educate their children and those under their care, in plainness of speech deportment and apparel - to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world - And they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

Our testimony against distilled spirituous liquors appears to be maintained agreeably to our discipline - Friends avoid frequenting taverns and places of dissipation - Moderation and temperance are observed on most occasions.

5th Summary

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved.

6th Summary

We believe that most friends maintain a faithful testimony against a hiring ministry though one report states that some of their members attend occasionally where a hiring minister officiates. Clear as regards the latter part of the query

7th Summary

Friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage - They also appear to be generally just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th Summary

Friends appear generally careful to bear a testimony against slavery. Those of the African race under our care are suitably provided for and some care is taken to instruct them in useful learning - though more attention in this respect might be profitable.

9th Summary

Care appears to be generally taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to exhort
