

of an endorsement to be placed on the minutes of friends now in attendance produced the following which is approved and the clerk directed to unite with the clerk of men's meeting in signing them as usual.

"Our friend David Hunt acceptably attended this meeting."

The committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's account report that they find in our hands a balance of $333.53 - the quotas for the present year included.

The committee appointed to bring forward the name of a friend to relieve this meeting as Treasurers in the room of our dear friend Lucy E. King who seems to be released, report that of Margaret White, which the meeting approves and she is accordingly appointed to the service.

And now, having gone through the business of our Yearly Meeting in much love and harmony, and having been favored, we respectfully believe through our several sittings with the comforting influences of the Holy Spirit - we separate at this time desiring that we may carry with us to our homes the animating remembrance of the favors we have enjoyed and the sweet and excellent counsel we have received.

The meeting adjourns to meet again at the usual time next year, if the Lord permit -

Julia Valentine
Clerk.
