

Adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

21st; of the month and 3rd of the week; Friends assembled near the hour adjourned to.

Our beloved friend Elizabeth Le Comstock in a weighty manner informed this meeting of her concern to visit the men's meeting; which was united with and the visit was paid.

All the Queries were read with the answers thereto from the Quarterly meetings, and the following summary approved. No report has reached us from the half year meeting in Virginia.

The state of society as brought before us by these answers has introduced some into a feeling of humility. Our dear young friends were exhorted to know in whom they do believe, and whom they are serving. "To be carnally minded is death but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" If we follow the Lamb of God, we shall know our hearts filled with His love. He has impressively said "He that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out" we believe if our dear young friends would early give their hearts to the Lord Jesus and obey His voice, they would find Him the gentlest of masters. They were invited to search the Scriptures for themselves; the same power which taught others, would reveal to them the beauty and spirituality of the Gospel dispensation. Mothers were affectionately entreated to train their dear children in the love of Jesus, early reading the Holy Scriptures to them, and instructing them in the blessed truths contained therein, believing the Holy Spirit will bless these efforts and the seed thus sown would grow up and flourish.

1st Summary

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held, and attended by the greater part of our members; but some neglect in this important duty is observable. Unbecoming behaviour mostly avoided, The hour of meeting not carefully observed by some Friends

2nd Summary

We believe Friends are careful to maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession; tale bearing and detraction are mostly discouraged; we know of no differences among us.

3rd Summary

Some Friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their children, and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel; to guard them against reading pernicious books; and from the corrupt conversation of the world. we believe most Friends encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures.

4th Summary

We believe our testimony against distilled spirituous liquors, is maintained agreeably to our discipline. Friends appear to avoid frequenting taverns, and attending places of diversion: and are mostly careful to observe moderation on all occasions.
