

5th Summary

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved; no children of this description to be educated.

6th Summary

We believe most Friends are careful to maintain our testimony against a hiring ministry: clear as respects the latter part of this query.

7th Summary

As far as appears Friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances: and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage; and we believe just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th Summary

Most Friends are careful to bear their testimony against Slavery: those of the African race under their care, are suitable provided for; and some care is taken to instruct them in useful learning.

9th Summary

Some care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to evince to those who will not be reclaimed, the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.

10th Summary

none.

11th Summary

One indulged meeting has been established and regularly held, on First day morning during the past year, in Montgomery County Maryland.

12th Summary

Some Friends are careful as far as practicable to place their children for tuition, under the care of teachers in membership with us.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

4th day morning. near the 10th hour, Friends assembled. Epistles to our Friends of London, Dublin, Western, and Ohio, Yearly meetings were read and approved.

Then Friends informed this meeting they have had under consideration the establishment of the yearly meeting in Iowa, to be held in 9th Month next: as brought to our notice by Indiana Yearly meeting 2 years ago. This meeting approves of an Epistle being addressed to them; which is referred to the committee on Epistles. Sarah H. Janney, Ann J. Matthews, Ann M. Scofield, and Deborah C. Thomas, are appointed to attend its opening.

A minute was read for Joel Wilson an Elder, companion to our dear friend Jeremia G. Shotwell, from Rahway & Plainfield Monthly meeting. New Jersey.

The committee continued last year to visit subordinate meetings, as was - may ~~for~~ for it and ~~will~~ be given - report to the yearly meeting.

The committee to extend advice, and assistance, to the subordinate meetings and the members composing them - report
