

companion to John Henry Douglas.

Their company and gospel labors amongst us have been truly acceptable to the Meeting.

Rebecca Blackburn and Mary Wright are appointed to unite with a similar committee of Men Friends in preparing a suitable endorsement to be placed upon them and report to a future sitting.

Sally E. King and Susan Carey are appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurers account and report to a future sitting.

The Minutes of the past year were read, and the Meeting is informed that they have been corrected and transcribed by the committee appointed for the purpose.

Mary Procter and Margaret Balducci are appointed to transcribe and correct those of the present year.

The Meeting adjourned to 10 O'clock tomorrow morning.

25th of the Month and 3rd of the week.

Near the hour adjourned to Friends assembled.

The Meeting entered upon the State of Society as shown by the answers to the queries, and proceeded through them. An exercising season was felt and expressed of the great need for faithful obedience on the part of those who have learned in some degree to know the Lord as their Saviour, that they may grow in grace and in the knowledge of Him, and their faith be shown by their works. "If ye love me keep my commandments." He calls for the whole heart, let it be freely yielded and every duty performed as if the ability which God giveth. They were affectionately assured that they would then experience the peace of God which passeth all understanding. To keep their hearts and minds through Jesus Christ. Mothers were encouraged in the early training of their children in the knowledge and love of the Holy Scriptures - of teaching them by precept and example the need and efficacy of seeking the guidance and enlightenment of the Holy Spirit, to enable them to understand and apply the doctrines and precepts of the Bible to profit. This blessed Guide is promised to all who seek for it, and when He - the "Spirit of Truth" is come, He will guide you into all Truth. He will qualify us to instruct those committed to our care, and bless our efforts however feeble to lead their infant steps into the paths of peace. The simplicity of dress and behavior becoming those who profess the name of Christ was also dwelt upon, as particularly incumbent upon us in this day of extravagance and
