In the Yearly Meeting now sitting
Dear Friends,

The Committee continued last year to visit our Subordinate Meetings and members, as may might open, report that they have given attention to their appointment.

Several of our members attended Centre Monthly Meeting and Sumner's Creek Quarterly Meeting held at Bellefonte in the 12th month 1863, and in the 6th and 9th mo 1864, and some of the families belonging thereto.

Through the course of the year some of the Committee have several times attended Dear Creek Monthly Meeting, and all the families of that Meeting have been visited. Montgomery, indulged Meeting, has been frequently attended and the members seen at their houses - the Meeting and families of Mendenhall have also been visited. Clearfield and Washington have not been visited during the past year. In attending to the service, to which they have been called, the Committee has felt much sympathy with our remote Meetings and members in their scattered and straggled condition. They thankfully acknowledge that help has been afforded to labor amongst them, and extend counsel and advice, as may be needed. - Therefore - They would earnestly recommend that the care and oversight of the Yearly Meeting should continue to be extended to our distant
