The company and gospel labors of these dear friends have been refreshing and helpful to us.

Eliza M. Thomas and Mary Wright are appointed to write with a similar committee of men friends, preparing a suitable essay of endorsement to be placed on the minutes of Friends now in attendance. with us, and produce it at a future sitting.

The London General Epistle was read to the comfort and edification of the meeting.
Mary W. Thomas and Elizabeth S. Hopkins were appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurers account, and report to a future sitting.

An Epistle from our sisters of Western Yearly Meeting was acceptably read; and the committee on epistles is directed to essay an answer thereto and produce
it at a future sitting.

Then adjourned to ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

After the hour adjourned to friends assembled.

All the queries were gone through with the answers from the subordinate meetings. & the following summary answers were adopted as nearly expressing the present state of the meeting. Much excellent counsel was expressed on the several subjects; and especially with regard to the early education of the dear children, mothers were encouraged to begin at a very early age, to teach them, of the love of Jesus; to pray with and for them, and to train their infant minds in love and obedience, to Him, who died for them. They were exhorted to seek for a qualification thus to labor, by coming in humble faith to the Lord, asking of Him to bless their instructions and enable them to walk before their children, as followers
