

attendance, and produce it at a future sitting.

Lisan B. Barry and Ann N. Schofield were named, to inspect the Treasurer's account, and report their care thereof, to a future sitting.

The minutes of last year were read, and the meeting was informed, that they were corrected, and transcribed by the committee appointed last year, for the purpose.

Elizabeth Fowler and Elizabeth R. Hopkins were named to correct and transcribe, the minutes of the present year.

The Representatives were desired to stop, at the close of the sitting, to consider of, and propose to our next sitting, the names of two Friends to serve this meeting as clerk and assistant clerk, the present year.

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow.

22nd of the month, and 3rd of the week.

Near the hour adjourned to Friends met.

Mary Wright on the part of the representatives informed the meeting, that they had conferred together and were united, in proposing, the name of Julia Valentine for clerk, and that, of Deborah C. Thomas, for assistant clerk. Which, being separately considered, was united with, and they were appointed to the service for the present year.

The meeting entered upon the state of society, and proceeded through all the queries, with the answers from the subordinate meetings. The following summaries thereof were adopted, as nearly representing the state of our meeting.

In thus looking back, through the past year, and the way by which, we have been brought hitherto, we have been led afresh, to commemorate the loving kindness of the Lord, in preserving us alive, and sustaining our weakness, even causing us at times, to rejoice in the blessed assurance, that He is indeed, "a God nigh at hand and not afar off" Oh, that in remembrance of His many mercies, we may be animated to more ardent endeavors, to serve and glorify Him, that His will, may be done in us, and by us. We rejoice in the belief, that there is a fresh spirit of life, breathing among us, comparable in some degree, to the shaking of the dry bones, witnessed by the prophet. May even such as these, hear the word of the Lord, and arise in newness of life, to know and serve Him.

Our scattered members, in their little meetings, and in their families gathering, have been tenderly encouraged to look, each one, to the Lord, to believe in Him, and claiming His precious promises, ask in faith, that we may receive strength, and find grace to help in
