

7th Summary.

Friends appear careful to maintain a faithful testimony, against oaths, military services, clandestine trade, prize goods & lotteries. Those of the African race, under our direction, are suitably provided for, and some care is taken, to instruct them in useful learning.

8th Summary.

Friends appear careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves, in business, beyond their ability to manage. We know of no instance of hazardous speculation, or of depravation of the public revenues.

Friends appear just in their dealings, and punctual in complying with their engagements.

9th Summary.

Care has not always been taken to deal with offenders seasonably, but when done, we believe it has been, impartially, and with a desire to convince to those who will not be reclaimed, a spirit of meekness and love, before judgment is placed upon them.

12th Summary.

Some Friends are careful, as far as practicable to place their children for tuition, under the charge of suitable teachers, in membership with us.

Our beloved friend Sarah F. Smith, laid before the meeting, a concern, which had mightily impressed her mind, to spend a little time in men's meeting, which was feelingly united with. Our beloved friend Rachel Bonford expressed a similar concern, which was also united with, and they encouraged to proceed therein. Men's meeting informed that a suitable time had occurred. Mary Wright an elder from our meeting accompanied them.

The meeting adjourned to 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

23rd of the month & 4th of the week.

Near the time adjourned to Friends met. Men and women Friends assembled in joint session.

The London General Epistle, was read, to our comfort and edification, and that our absent members, may
