

has thus mercifully condescended to be near, to help, in the needful time. Those who have been sensible of the touches of the Saviour's love, upon their hearts were earnestly entreated, now to give a willing obedience, and so, to experience their strength to increase, and the peace which they have longed for, to be theirs.

Epistles from our friends of New England and Canada were received and read, to our satisfaction, and the committee on Epistles is directed to prepare essays of answers, thank, and produce to a future sitting.

Then adjourned, to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

19th of the month and 3rd of the week, near the time adjourned to, friends assembled.

The meeting resumed the consideration of the state of society, and proceeded through the queries, with their answers. The meeting was brought into deep and lively exercise, upon the various subjects and duties thus brought into view, and all were entreated to remember that as members of the Church of Christ, of His body who is Head over all things to His Church, each has a service to perform, a place to fill in the household of faith. The value and efficacy of prayer was especially dwelt upon, and mothers were exhorted to yield to the gentle intimations of the Holy Spirit, and be willing to bear the cross in prayer, not only in private, but in the family circle, and with their children separately or collectively. Faithfulness in little things was particularly dwelt upon, and we were reminded that if the subject of dress resemble the denunciation of an inspired prophet, and the exhortation of an inspired apostle, it was surely not too small to engage the prayerful attention, of those who desire the ornament of a meek & quiet spirit. As we bring our deeds to the light, there will be made manifest which are wrought in God.

Our dear friends Mrs B. Nichols and John B. Cushman paid us an acceptable visit, in the love of the gospel. Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

1st Summary

All our meetings for worship & discipline have been held, and well attended by most friends, when circumstances will permit, though there is neglect on the part of some, particularly in the attendance of mid-week meetings. Unbecoming behavior avoided by most friends, and the hour nearly observed.

2nd Summary.

We believe most friends endeavor to maintain love towards each other, becoming our Christian profession. Tale bearing
