

stands as follows: Deborah C. Thomas, Mary J. Edge - Clarissa F. Davis, Julia Valentine, - Ann N. Scofield, Margaret White, and Sarah F. Smiley.

The Committee on General Meetings report, - that a General Meeting was held at Deer Creek, in 6th mo last. Two Meetings for the explanation of our Christian views - on Worship, Ministry, Baptism, and Communion were held on seventh day, and two Religious Meetings on first day. The weather was favorable, the attendance large, and much interest was manifested. We believe good resulted and we recommend the continuance of a similar Committee for the coming year.

On behalf of the Committee,

John Scott

Deborah C. Thomas.

The joint Committee upon the proposition from Western Yearly Meeting produced the following report; which was read, and fully united with by the Meeting;

To the Yearly Meeting:

"The Committee appointed to consider the proposition from Western Yearly Meeting, apprehend that Co-operation in Christian work is probably on as good a basis in its present form, as the nature of the case will admit of; and the other part of the proposition, - "to determine such questions as may be of common interest, and concern the general welfare," - is hardly, in our judgment definite enough to warrant such an appointment. -

"The Committee believe, however, that there are periods in the history of the Church when it is called upon to reaffirm its doctrines, testimonies and mission.

In this day of awakened religious interest and inquiry among our own members, and others who are being drawn to us in various sections; - in the multiplication of Yearly Meetings, and the rapid increase of membership in some parts, we believe the time is not far distant when a general Conference of the Yearly Meetings of this Continent, and of London and Dublin, would be desirable, to reaffirm the Doctrines, Testimonies and Mission of the Religious