

Baltimore Monthly meeting has been several times visited, and the meeting at Washington on two occasions, also Montgomery Particular Meeting on several occasions.

Within the limits of Lunning's Creek Quarter. — Several of the committee attended Lunning's Creek Quarterly Meeting and two of the committee attended the meetings at Curwensville, and appointed a meeting for the public at that place, and several attended Centre Monthly Meeting.

Within the limits of Virginia Half-Year Meeting. — Two of the committee attended the Half-Year meeting at Black-Creek in the 5th Mo, where there was supposed to be present from 1200 to 1500 persons. a meeting being held at a stand in the yard as well as in the house, both in the fore and afternoon; notwithstanding the great crowd remarkable good order prevailed. The two of the committee at another time visited Black-Creek Meeting and most of the families there. Three of the committee attended the Half-Year meeting in Richmond in the 10th Mo, and had a meeting appointed for the public.

Feeling that the labors of such a committee are of value, strengthening hands ready to hang down, we recommend to the Yearly Meeting the continuance of such a committee for such service another year.

Signed on behalf of the committee John B. Crenshaw.

The committee on General Meetings made the following Report, which was satisfactory to the meeting, and the committee was continued, with the addition of the names of Mary Wright and Mary F. Thomas.

The committee on General Meetings report; that a General Meeting was held at Bellefonte, on the 1st of 6th Month, last, commencing with an appointed meeting at the Court-House on 6th day evening, which was largely attended. Two meetings were held in Friends Meeting House, on 6th day and one in the evening, at the Court House, again in Friends Meeting House on 7th day forenoon. an appointed meeting at Unionville in the afternoon and in the evening at the Young Men's Christian Association.

On first day, besides our regular meeting for worship there were three appointed meetings held in the afternoon and evening at the Meeting Houses of other Denominations which was offered the Committee.

At several of these meetings Friends views were specially explained. Much interest and feeling was manifested among Friends and others and we believe the Lord's blessing attended the various meetings.

Believing that such General Meetings when conducted in the fear of the Lord are calculated to do much good, we unite in recommending the continuance of a committee for holding such meetings within
