

Twelfth. Summary

Friends are careful as far as practicable to place their children for tuition, under the charge of teachers in membership with us. —

Our Friend Rufus P. King paid us a very acceptable visit in the love of the Gospel. —

Then adjourned to meet again tomorrow morning at ten o'clock in joint session with men Friends. —

21st of the month and 4th of the week

Near the hour Friends assembled in joint session, pursuant to adjournment. —

The London general epistle was read to our satisfaction and comfort. The usual number of copies were ordered to be printed and distributed. —

The Committee on General meetings made a report which was accepted and the Committee released. —

Margaret H. White, Emily C. Whitlock, Julia Valentine and Mary W. Thomas were appointed to unite with a similar Committee appointed by Men Friends in bringing forward to a future sitting the names of friends to form a Committee to consider of and attend to the subject of holding general meetings within our limits during the present year.

Report

To the Yearly Meeting — way has not opened to hold any meetings the past year, but the concern continues to dwell with us —

on behalf of the Committee.

James C. Thomas

Julia Valentine —

The Committee appointed to visit subordinate meetings made a report which was accepted, and the Committee released. —

Rachael Brooks, Sarah A. Crenshaw, and Alice M. G. were appointed to unite with a Committee of men Friends, in bringing forward to a future sitting the names of Friends to form a Committee to visit our subordinate meetings. —

Report.

The Committee to visit our subordinate meetings and members, report that a part of the number attended to Half Years Meeting of Virginia, in the 5th month held at Black Creek Virginia, and we also visited several families belonging thereto; Dinnings Creek Quarterly meeting and some of its families, and Baltimore Quarterly meeting held at Deer Creek and some of the meetings belonging to it, appointing some meetings and visiting some families within its limits. —

on behalf of the Committee.

John Scott

Julia Valentine —

The report of the Committee on peace was read & accepted