

we know of no differences amongst us.

Third Summary.

We believe most Friends endeavor, by example and precept to bring up their children, and those under their care, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord: and to some extent in the plainness of speech, deportment and apparel which the Gospel enjoins. Some care is taken to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world. We believe they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures, but more earnest Christian care is greatly needed with regard to all the ~~more~~ important requisitions of this query.

Fourth Summary.

Most Friends faithfully maintain our testimony to a free Gospel Ministry agreeably to our Discipline.

Fifth Summary.

Friends are generally clear as to the several requisitions of this query.

Sixth Summary.

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved. They are advised and assisted in such employments as they are capable of, and some care appears to be taken to provide for the school education of their children.

Seventh Summary.

We believe that due care is taken with regard to the various points queried after.

Eighth Summary.

Friends are mostly careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage. Generally clear as to the other points of the query.

Ninth Summary.

Some care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to convince to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness & love, before judgment is placed upon them.
