

The Meeting entered upon the consideration of the state of Society as shown in the answers to the Queries, and the following Resolutions thereof were adopted.

The Meeting was introduced into an exercise for our members present and absent, that they might understand their privileges and reap the benefit of accepting them, their full and true sense.

The duty and advantage of punctuality and regularity in the attendance of all our Meetings for worship and discipline was earnestly dwelt upon, and the nature and individual character of spiritual worship was lovingly set forth.

Then the desires, thoughts and mind, are prayerfully centred upon the Lord, who according to His promise is in the midst; of those who are gathered in His name, we shall know the teaching of His Holy Spirit; and the refreshment of His presence in our souls. Let us persevere in the way of such blessing.

Let not household cares or worldly business, interfere with our presenting ourselves, in the assemblies met to worship Him, who hath bought us with His own precious blood, whom we are, and whom we ought to serve, and let loving obedience await His call, to testify of His power, or speak of His love.

The unity and love among us, as set forth in the answer to the Query, gave rise to expressions of thanksgiving, and praise. We were reminded that true Christian love, must be in some measure, like the love of Christ to our souls. It will be shown in earnest desire for each other's welfare, and in seeking for opportunities to sympathize in their spiritual experiences, and to give or receive the word of advice, and encouragement. Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another and the Lord hearkened and heard it. This love worketh well to its neighbor, and where it prevails there will be no ear for tale-bearing or detraction, and where there are no listeners, there will be no talkers. Much encouragement and sympathy was
