

to promote the Religious and Educational interests of our Meetings and Members" made a report which was satisfactory, and the Committee was continued with the addition of Judith A. Greenhouse. The Committee on General Meetings made a report which was accepted. The Committee was continued with the addition of Deborah C. Thomas and Esther B. Tuttle, and encouraged to more active service.

The Committee on First Day Schools made a satisfactory report.

A concern was brought forward for the appointment of a Committee for the promotion of Home Mission work, to report through the Quarterly Meetings, to represent ~~the same~~ ^{the same} ~~the same~~ ^{the same} to the Yearly Meeting. Several Friends were directed to consider of, and propose to a future sitting the names of suitable Friends to form such a committee, selecting two or more from each Monthly Meeting.

A Report from the Committee on Foreign Missions was read and accepted by the Meeting. The Committee was continued.

A communication from the Yearly Meeting of North Carolina was read, setting forth the needs of many of the people of the Southern States, and soliciting advice and assistance in procuring for them education and enlightenment. The communication was referred to the Baltimore Association of Friends. Extracts from the Report of the Peace Association were read, and approved. Then adjourned to half past three o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

25th. of the month and 5th. of the week.

Near the hour adjourned to, Friends assembled.

The Friends appointed to bring forward the names of Friends to form a Committee on Home Missions, reported a list of names which was approved, and the Friends named were appointed, and directed to report next year.

The following Minute from Men's Meeting was read, and fully united with by this Meeting:

"The Meeting was introduced into a prayerful concern, that heads of families be encouraged to collect their households together each day for family worship, reading the Holy Scriptures and waiting upon the Lord. Quarterly Meetings and Half Year Meetings were directed to ascertain by personal enquiry, what number of families ^{are} ~~are~~ not in the practice of this important duty, and to