An Epistle from Kansas Yearly Meeting of Women Friends was read, and was acceptable to the Meeting. It was referred to the Committee on Epistles.

A Minute was read from New York Monthly Meeting for Rebecca S. Hailand companion to Rebecca Collins.

Also, a Minute from Edinburgh two months meeting, for Mary White an Elder companion to Sarah B. Satterthwaite.

Our dear friends Caroline E. Talbot and Deborah C. Thomas, paid a visit to the Meeting of Men Friends.

The meeting entered upon the consideration of the state of society as brought into view by the members to the Society. The reading of these each year with apparently little variation may seem as needless repetition to those uninterested. But there is an ever recurring freshness, in the exercise of the Church for its members both present and absent, which proceeds from true spiritual travail for the welfare of the whole body.

A deep concern has been expressed that there might be a more faithful and
