

Times, and pious and demoralizing places of America.

Sixth Summary.

The necessities of the poor, and the circumstances of those, who appear likely to require aid, have been inspected and to some extent relieved, and they advised and assisted in such employments as they are capable of.

Seventh Summary.

Friends children are placed at school, and most of them, when practicable, under the care of Friends.

Eighth Summary.

Friends are clear as regards the several questions of this Year.

Ninth Summary.

We believe Friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves in business, beyond their ability to manage, or engaging in speculations, or speculative trade. As far as appears, they are just in their dealings and frankness in complying with their engagements, and when any give reasonable grounds for fear in these respects, our care is extended to them.

Tenth Summary.

Care is generally taken, to deal with offenders, seasonably & impartially, and in the spirit of meekness & love.

Eleventh Summary.

Done.

Twelfth Summary.

Done.

A very general exercise pervaded the Meeting, in considering the needs of the Church, and the responsibility that rests upon the individual members.

We feel that the blessing of the Lord has rested upon our Yearly Meeting in the past, keeping us in sweet harmony and fellowship one with another, yet, very earnest desires were expressed, that in the coming year, we may be more thorough and effective as a working Church. If we are faithful in using the talents which have been entrusted to us for the Master's use, and are surrendered to Him, our religious meetings will not often be held in silence, but there will be a free Gospel Ministry, in every part of our Yearly Meeting.

The principles of Christianity as held by the Society of Friends are, we believe, wonderful