

utmost importance that they should not only receive proper educational advantages, but that these should be extended to them at the right age. We therefore propose to make a careful list of all the children of our members, to assist those who could be educated with a little extra help, & to send these children to school where circumstances prevent them from going otherwise.

In order that this may be thoroughly done, funds will be needed - about $1500. this year. We would earnestly encourage all our friends to give us voluntary subscriptions. Already several conditional subscriptions have been received, and we trust that our friends seeing the importance of the work will be prompt in handing in their contributions.

On behalf of the Committee
Francis J. King.
Mary W. Thomas.

Baltimore 10th Mo. 25th 1852

The Committee on Home Missions presented the following report. The Committee was released and the following friends appointed to present to a future sitting the names of a new Committee to have charge of both Bible Schools and Home Missions, to report to this Meeting annually, viz: John C. Thomas, Zachariah M. Saul, Richard A. Ficks, Julia Valentine, Eliza J. Blanchard, and Judith Greenharr.

Report of the Committee on Home Missions. The Committee have received reports from all the Monthly Meetings, and although some of them report that no organizational mission work has been done, from other places very encouraging accounts have been received.

We find that at least one hundred of our members can be regarded as actively engaged in the work, a number we should be very glad to have increase in the next year.

It was particularly pleasing to us to learn that about twenty of the members of Friends' Federal Hill Mission