A public meetings on Foreign Missions has been held at Federal Hill, and also one at Patuxent. Great interest was awakened in both places resulting in much large contributions in proportion to their ability than from almost any other quarter. The Committee hope there will be more general interest in the cause the coming year throughout the year. Meeting, I would especially commend Friends Mexican Mission to the liberality of our members.

On behalf of the Committee
