

they thought it would be proper to append a postscript to the Epistle to the different Yearly Meetings, informing them of the need of a Meeting House in the Capital of our Nation, and the supposed cost - $15,000. Francis J. Pierce, John B. Nicholas and Jas. L. Thomas were appointed to have it in charge.

The Meeting approved of the report of the Committee and directed that a similar paragraph be added to our Epistles.

The Minutes of the Meeting were read and approved. The names of the Representatives were called as at the beginning.

The Meeting was concluded under a very precious feeling of praise & thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for His faithfulness and loving kindness toward us at a Yearly Meeting. He has heard and answered our prayers.

Then concluded to meet on the 7th day after the first-second day in eleventh month 1883, if the Lord permit.

Mary W. Thomas Clerk
