

depth and height; and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge" -
He concluded with the impressive watchword to one of the early churches; "Hold fast that thou hast, that no man take thy crown" -

A very interesting and satisfactory Report from the Committee on Foreign Missions was read, also its financial statement. The Committee was encouraged to continue its work, and report next year.

Lillie H. Thompson	Lewis A. Hoge
Isaac C. Hoge	Richard A. Ricks
Thomas E. Miller	Ellis Sewin
Isabella White	Judith Crenshaw
Cosmelia Hughes	Franklin T. McCoy
James E. Underhill	Jennie Way
Lillian A. Heave

were added to the committee.

The minutes of the Representative Meeting were read, and the variety and importance of the subjects before it the past year claimed the attention of this Meeting.

The Treasurer of Men's Meeting was directed to pay to the Treasurer of the Indian Committee Baltimore's proportion of the sum of $3.500 - for the expenses of this Committee.

Dr Jas. E. Rhoads gave a very interesting account of the Indian Erection -

~~The~~ Report of Committee on Indian Affairs, see minutes of Men's Meeting. Also the Report from the Baltimore Association of Friends to advise and assist Friends at the South.

The Committee to name a friend to fill this Meeting's representation in the Representative Meeting, proposed the name of Charles S. Thomas, and he was appointed to that service. Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in separate session -

12th of the month and 14th of the week -

Friends assembled at the appointed hour. The reading of the minutes of last year was concluded.

The meeting was informed that the minutes had been corrected and transcribed.

Bessie J. Hopkins and Anna S. King were appointed to copy them this year.

A statistical report from each Meeting was read, of which the following is a summary.