A cordial welcome was extended to all these dear Friends and to others who are amongst us without Minutes addressed to this Meeting, but who are here in Gospel love.

Their presence was recognized as a token of the loving care of the great Head of the Church.

Mary J. Edge, and Jane E. White were appointed to unite with a similar Committee of men Friends in preparing an endorsement to be placed upon the Minutes of Friends in attendance, to be produced at a future sitting.

Acceptable Epistles were read from Iowa, Ohio and Canada Yearly Meetings; they were referred to the Epistle Committee. The following Friends were added to the Committee, Clarissa Davis, Mary J. White, Rebecca Brown, Martha Wright, M. Belle Greenhaw, Sarah P. Ellicott, Rachel Brooks and Clara Valentine.

The subject of Temperance was brought before the Meeting, and several earnest addresses on the subject were made by various Friends, among whom was Margaret Lucas, a Friend from London Yearly Meeting, of England, the President of the World's W. T. U. It was decided to propose that 3rd day evening be devoted to a Temperance Meeting.
