

The conclusions of the Conference upon the subjects which claimed its attention, and the declaration of faith which it adopted have been read & approved by this Meeting. We are thankful that the blessing of the Lord rested on the deliberations of the Conference, and we have approved of printing the minutes and proceedings, and our Treasurer is directed to pay one proportion of the expense thereof to the Committee of Indiana Yearly Meeting, to whose care it was committed by the Conference. To the Yearly Meeting;

The Delegates appointed last year by the Yearly Meeting to attend a Conference of Yearly Meetings, proposed by Indiana Yearly Meeting, report, that they all attended the Conference, except Francis J. King, in whose place Francis White was present, by appointment of the Representative Meeting.

The Conference assembled at Richmond Indiana, 9th mo 2nd, 1887, & continued its sessions until 9th mo 27th. Delegates were present from London & Dublin Yearly Meetings, & from all the Yearly Meetings on this Continent, except Philadelphia.

Four members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting however were present by invitation, and took an acceptable part in the Conference.

The Committee believe that the free interchange of sentiment, the Christian earnestness & brotherly love, which was manifested in the deliberations of the Conference, together with the general recognition of the present importance to the world of the message & mission of our branch of the Christian Church, will have a salutary effect in promoting the unity & harmony of the different Yearly Meetings.

We present herewith a summary of the conclusions of the Conference also a Declaration of some of the fundamental principles of Christian truth as held by the Society of Friends, adopted by the Conference with great unanimity. The Conference directed that the minutes and proceedings be printed, & the distribution thereof be divided proportionally to the membership respectively of the Yearly Meetings.

John Bellows, Jr.	Mary E. Edge,
James Canby Thomas	Mary Whitall Thomas,
Caleb Winslow,	Jane E. White,
Francis White	Mary Snowden Thomas,

(For conclusions of the Conference, see printed minutes)