

having reached us in time to be presented to the Meeting yesterday, was read in this Meeting. A cordial welcome was extended to her. Then adjourned to 10 o'clock, 2nd day morning.

Second day morning - 11th Nov - 12th

Friends met according to adjournment in joint session.

The following communication was received from Indiana Yearly Meeting in regard to holding a general conference in 1892. (see printed minutes) It was referred to the Committee appointed on that subject last year. (See printed minutes)

The Yearly Meeting was informed of vacancies in this Meeting's representation in the Representative meeting, occasioned by the death of our dear friends - Joshua H. Northington and Mary R. Thomas.

The following Friends were appointed to present to a future session, the names of two Friends to fill the vacancies - viz - Joseph P. Elliott - John Nicholson Elija Blanchard and Julia Valentine.

The report of the Pastoral Committee was read. The work of the Committee for the past year was approved by the meeting. The Treasurer was directed to pay $700. or as much thereof as is requisite, to meet the travelling expenses of those engaged in the work.

Much unity was expressed with its work and it was continued this year and encouraged to prosecute its work with renewed energy, in the ability which God giveth.

The Committee to examine the report of the Treasurer of the Pastoral Committee reported they had attended to that service and found it correct.

The amount expended was $654.

The Meeting authorized the payments of $300 additional towards the expenses of John and Sarah Newlin, in their recent visit to Europe and Palestine.

A statistical report of our Yearly Meeting was read, as follows -

Number of families	143
Number of Elders	41
