

been wrecked that were led astray, in the first instance by the love of dress.

Let us remember that - "none of us liveth to himself", and take heed that - "no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way."

It was strongly felt that our testimonies to peace and truthfulness, as brought before us, in the query, should not be held traditionally, but kept practically before us, and mothers were urged to early instruct their children in these important truths.

In the removal from us of several of our beloved and honored friends, our hearts have been led to praise our Heavenly Father for the witness of "their lives to the power and reality of the Lord Jesus Christ. Their words and their lives were full of inspiration, because they walked with Him.

The word to us at this time, in view of the loss of one of these, who has entered into the fulness of joy, in the presence of her Lord, has been - "Moses, my servant, is dead; now, therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them." Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you."

The following communication was received from Men's Meeting -

In regard to the answering of the queries, this meeting directs the Monthly Meetings to answer the queries to the Quarterly Meetings, so as to represent the state of their members at that time. But the Quarterly Meetings preceeding the Yearly Meetings are directed in making up their summary answers for the year, to take in to consideration the answers received from the Monthly Meetings during the year.

This Meeting approved of their proposition, then adjourned to Fourth day Morning at 10 o'clock, in joint session.

Fourth day morning, 11th mo. - 14th
At the hour adjourned to, Friends assembled in joint session.

The London General Epistle was read.