

It is full of Christian love and counsel.

The meeting directed that 1000 copies be printed for distribution. We also have directed 500 copies of the minutes of this meeting be printed.

Augusta L. Watkins - M. Alice Brooks James Carey, Jr. - John R. Carey and John C. Thomas were appointed a committee on printing.

The report of the Home Mission and Bible School Committee was read and accepted; they were continued another year. James H. Crenshaw and Vira Hawks were added to the committee.

The committee on endorsements produced the usual form, which was accepted and the clerks were directed to endorse them accordingly.

The committee on Foreign Missions made the following report, with an account of their receipts and expenditures, which was accepted. (See printed minutes)

The meeting directed, that each Monthly

Meeting appoint a Monthly Meetings committee, to organize and cooperate with the Yearly Meetings committee.

Eliza M. Thomas and Elizabeth M. Knapp were added to the committee.

Stanley Newman, very forcibly, brought before this meeting the subject of the larger distribution of Friends' literature. It was referred to the special notice of the Representative Meeting.

The committee to propose the names of Friends, to fill the vacancies in the Representative Meeting, proposed those of Samuel N. Brown and Eliza J. Pleasant which was approved, and they were accordingly appointed.

The report of the Temperance Committee was read and accepted. They were continued another year. Joseph J. White was added to the committee.

The committee to propose the sum of money necessary to be raised the ensuing year for the use of this meeting, proposed $1200 dollars, which was satisfactory to the meeting; and the subordinate meetings were directed to raise their quota of that amount and pay it to the Treasurer.