

and the sum necessary to be raised the ensuing year, and report to a future sitting. At this time Friends met in separate session -

Separate Session (Women)

Epistles from London, Canada, New York, New England, North Carolina, Indiana, Western, Iowa and Kansas were read. The Epistle from Dublin has failed to reach us -

The following Friends were appointed to prepare answers to those read, and also one to Dublin, and one to the children, and if way should open for it, one to our absent sisters, and present them to a future session, viz; Eliza J. Pleasant, Anna D. Slabber & others -

The clerk and Assistant Clerk were directed to make a summary of the Epistles received from other Yearly Meetings, to be printed with the Minutes.

Then adjourned to meet in separate session, at 10 o'clock, Seventh day morning.

Seventh day morning

At the hour adjourned to, Friends assembled. Rachel Brooke, on behalf of the Representatives reported that they had conferred together, and were united in proposing Margaret H. Elliot for Clerk, and Lydia W. Haviland for Assistant Clerk, which was united with, and they were accordingly appointed to that service for the ensuing year.

The Committee to propose the names of Friends to have the oversight of the Devotional Meetings, to be held during the Yearly Meeting, presented the following: Richard H. Thomas, Anna D. Slabber, Samuel R. Keave, Elizabeth Piggott, Rebecca H. Thomas, Mills E. Raiford and Mary J. D. Pretton.

They also propose the following Friends to see that proper attention is given to seating those in attendance at the several meetings, and that they be authorized to call upon any other of our members for assistance, viz: Charles J. Cary, Philip T. Slabber, Barber Newhall, William L. Elliot, James Carey Jr., John W. Parker and Charles F. Brede. The nominations were approved by this Meeting. Anna Schofield was appointed messenger.