

with other Yearly Meetings to have it suitably presented. It is as follows:

See Men's Minutes -

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in separate session.

Third day morning, 11th Month, 12th
Separate Session

Women

The Minute on the state of Society was read and accepted. The Meeting then assembled in joint session in order to continue the reading of the reports from the various standing committees -

Joint Session -

The Report of the Home Mission and Bible School Committee was read. This report of the different kinds of Mission work engaged in has been deeply interesting to us, and we again commend this work to all our members. In order that the Home Mission work may be brought under the notice of our several Monthly Meetings, this Meeting directs each of the Monthly Meetings to appoint a small Co-operating Committee on Home Missions, which Committees shall act in concert with the Executive Committee of the Home Mission Committee, and shall also report to their respective Monthly Meetings at least three times a year, and that the Secretary of each Committee shall be expected to present a full and detailed summary of the work of the year to the Executive Committee, before the time of holding the yearly Meeting each year.

Joseph P. Elliott, Z. McVaul, Richard A. Ricks, Clarissa Davis, Isabella White & Lydia A. McVaul, were appointed to bring forward to our next meeting the names of Friends to form an Executive Committee on Home Missions -

For the report see Men's Minutes -

The following report received from the Committee on Education, was read and approved. George Rensford was added to the Committee. The Committee was continued. The Meeting directed the Treasurer of the Meeting to pay to