

Ans. 12. None.

Then adjourned to meet Second day morning at 10 o'clock, in joint session.

Second day Morning 11th. mo. 10.
Joint Session.

Friends met at 10 o'clock.

The London General Epistle was read. The Epistle this year contains much timely and valuable advice to the Church, and earnest exhortation to individuals, and in order that this may reach our absent members and others, the Printing Committee were directed to have 1,000 copies printed for general distribution.

A memorial of Baltimore Monthly Meeting concerning our late dear Friend, Caroline M. Collicott, was read, and directed to be published with the Minutes of this Meeting.

The following proposition was contained in the Epistle from Indiana, and was agreed to by this Yearly Meeting.

See Men's Minutes.

The Foreign Mission Committee made the following interesting report, together with a detailed statement of their receipts and expenditures during the year. The Meeting approved their action, and would encourage them to prosecute the service the coming year. The present Committee was released, and John R. Leary, Howard M. Hoge, Mary J. Rutlow, and Rebecca C. Thomas were directed to propose to a future session of this Meeting the names of suitable Friends to form a Committee on Foreign Missions of Baltimore Yearly Meeting. See Men's Minutes.

An invitation was received from the Foreign Mission Committee of Indiana Yearly Meeting, proposing the appointment of an Associated Committee on Foreign Missions of several Yearly Meetings, to whom the whole management of this important work should be confided. The subject was referred to the following Friends, who were directed to report to a future session of this Yearly Meeting, viz. Mary M. Cullough, Lydia W. Habiland, John Nicholson, Allen C. Thomas, George L. Scott, Daniel J. Hoge, Clara Smith, Lydia Ann M. Paul, John Rutlow, Eliza M. Thomas, Susan R. Matthews, Thomas M. Coyle, Samuel R. Neave, William H. Phasants.
