

testify his religious services within our limits were many brought to a close. On behalf of our beloved brother we are engaged to testify that his company & gospel labours among us have been truly acceptable & edifying. We believe that his feet have been clad with the preparation of the gospel of peace and that a tongue of assurance has been vouchsafed him to declare its blessed truths. We desire for him preservation & strength, in the fields of labour in this land to which he may yet be directed, & that when the Lord of the harvest may say "it is enough" he may be favoured to return to his home and to his friends with the reward of peace.

& the Yearly Meeting of Ministers & Elders held in London
Dear Friends

Our beloved friend Rachael Brewster attended the meeting last year & produced your certificate of unity with her as a minister, liberating her to make a religious visit to friends in some parts of this Continent, but whose parts entirely within the limits of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting and she having subsequently visited some of the meetings constituting this Yearly Meeting, we have in remembrance of her services on this occasion, believed it right to testify our unity & satisfaction with her departure & gospel labours amongst us.
