The Queries were read in this meeting together with the answers received from the Quarterly Meetings of Ministers and Elders of Baltimore and Tunningbrook and verbal answers were accepted from the Representatives of the Half Year Meeting of Virginia, their written answers having by inadvertence been left at home, and the following Summary answers were collected to represent the present state of this Meeting. 1st Answer. Ministers & Elders when of ability are generally diligent in the attendance of Meetings for worship and Discipline and we believe they encourage their families to that religious duty.

Second Answer

We believe that Ministers in the exercise of their gifts endeavor to be careful to wait for Divine ability.

Third Answer

We believe that Ministers & Elders are in unity one with another and with the Meetings to which they belong, measurably manifesting a religious concern for the advancement of Truth and the support of our Discipline.

Fourth Answer. Ministers and Elders endeavor to be good examples in uprightness temperance and moderation, and concerned to educate their families in plainness of dress and simplicity of manners becoming our Christian profession.

The meeting having been favored to experience the influence of prayer and supplication, and in being permitted to meet together as in heavenly places, under a renewed sense of the goodness of our Father in Heaven in fulfilling the precious promises of the Saviour
