

and simplicity of manner becoming our religious professions.

Having experienced the ancient Word of history to be over us on the present occasion in the humbling of our minds.

The Meeting adjourns to meet again at 9 o'clock on fourth day morning next.

Near the time adjourned to friends assembled, Having been favored during the sittings of this Meeting with a measure of the fellowship and unity which binds together the living members in the church of Christ, under a grateful sense thereof the Meeting resolved to meet at the usual time next year if the Lord permit. John Scott Clerk
