Dear Friends

Our beloved Friend Isaac Robson with Certificates from your respective meetings attended our last Yearly Meeting, and has since then visited various meetings within our limits. In remembering at this time, his services among us, we feel it due to acknowledge our sense of the sweetness of his spirit, and the ripeness of his christian experience as largely contributing to the effect<sup>ness</sup> of his loving labor for the Lord. His ministry was sound and edifying, and of especial value to them who are humbly seeking a closer walk with God.

We desire for our beloved Brother that in his return from offering this evening sacrifice he may richly enjoy the assurance that his gracious Master has accepted his service, and be enabled during his remaining days to share largely in the peace and lively hope of the gospel.

Signed in and on behalf of Baltimore Yearly Meeting.
